Biography

Julie Antaya is an experienced paralegal and manager, serving a variety of clients in corporate law, governance, regulatory compliance and health law.

Julie assists her clients with corporate bookkeeping under the provincial and federal Business Corporations Act, as well as for healthcare companies subject to the obligations of the Act respecting health services and social services. She also supports companies with due diligence in the context of acquisitions and ensures their compliance with the obligations of the Autorité des marchés publics and the Lobbyist. She also has a keen interest in all aspects of commercial and real estate law.

Julie's career path is testimony to her considerable knowledge and interpersonal skills, having twice held the position of head of legal affairs, first in the real estate sector, then in the healthcare sector, after having worked as a paralegal, legal analyst and corporate secretary for over 15 years. Julie's experience and great adaptability make her a key player in any project, and a resourceful ally. She is recognized for her thoroughness, integrity, analytical skills and sound judgment, as well as her ability to synthesize information and work with multidisciplinary teams.
